

Preface	s3	3.2 Practical aspects of end-of-life care: responsibilities, treatments that may be limited, appropriate or permissible actions	s15
Executive summary	s4	3.2.1 Clinical responsibilities of the healthcare team	s15
1. Introduction	s6	3.2.2 The range of treatments that may be withdrawn	s15
2. Background considerations	s6	3.2.3 Cardiopulmonary resuscitation	s15
2.1 Definitions	s6	3.2.4 Clinically assisted nutrition and hydration	s16
2.2 The extent of withholding and withdrawal of LST in paediatric practice	s7	3.2.5 Muscle relaxants and end-of-life care	s16
2.3 The legal framework	s7	3.2.6 Palliative care	s16
2.3.1 Statutes	s7	3.2.7 Organ donation	s17
2.3.2 The child and young adult	s8	3.3 Practical aspects of decision making	s17
2.3.3 Parental Responsibility	s8	3.3.1 The basis of decision making by teams	s17
2.3.4 The role of the courts in end-of-life decision making	s9	3.3.2 Obtaining second opinions	s18
2.3.5 Best interests	s9	3.3.3 Resource considerations	s18
2.3.6 Quality of life and legal decisions	s10	3.3.4 Communication as part of decision making	s18
2.3.7 Withdrawing treatment	s10	3.3.5 Resolution of different opinions	s19
2.4 The ethical framework	s10	3.3.6 Medical input	s19
2.4.1 Fundamental considerations	s10	4. Bereavement	s20
2.4.2 The interests of the child	s10	4.1 Families	s20
2.4.3 Parental discretion, responsibilities, rights, duties and power	s10	4.2 The healthcare team	s20
2.4.4 Parental interests, wishes and professional duties	s11	4.3 Key goals in the provision of bereavement support	s21
2.4.5 Involving children	s11	5. Future practicalities	s21
2.4.6 Children with disabilities	s11	5.1 Training	s21
2.4.7 Transition to adult services	s12	5.2 Resources	s21
2.4.8 Axioms on which to base best practice	s12	5.3 Research/audit	s21
3. The process of decision making	s13	5.4 Clinical ethics services	s21
3.1 Practical considerations; substantial issues in decision making	s13	References	s21
3.1.1 To withhold, to withdraw or to limit?	s13	Appendix 1: Suggested bereavement resources	s23
3.1.2 Dealing with uncertainty	s13
3.1.3 Situations in which it is appropriate to limit treatment	s13
3.1.4 Spectrum of decisions and parental discretion	s14		